(g) exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be conferred or imposed upon it by this Ordinance or the Statutes.

(3) The Board shall have the power to appoint such committees, as it considers necessary for the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties under this Ordinance.

14. Senate.— The Senate of the Institute shall consist of the following persons, namely:—

(a) the Director, ex officio, who shall be the Chairman of the Senate;

(b) the Professors appointed or recognised as such by the Institute for the purpose of imparting instructions in the Institute;

(c) three persons, not being employees of the Institute, to be nominated by the Board from among educationists of repute, one each from the fields of science, engineering and humanities; and

(d) such other members of the staff as may be laid down in the Statutes.

15. Functions of Senate.— Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Statutes and the Ordinances, the Senate shall be the principal academic body of the Institute and shall have control over and be responsible for maintenance of standards of education, teaching and training, inter-departmental co-ordination, research, examinations and tests within the Institute and shall exercise such other powers and discharge such other duties and functions as may be prescribed or conferred upon it by the Statutes.

16. Powers and functions of Chairperson.— (1) The Chairperson shall preside at the meetings of the Board and at convocations of the Institute.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Chairperson to ensure that decisions taken by the Board are implemented.

(3) The Chairperson shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by or under this Ordinance, Statutes or by resolution of the Board.

17. Director.— (1) The Director of the Institute shall be appointed by the Visitor, on whose directions the Board shall issue an order of appointment.

(2) The Director shall be the principal academic and executive officer of the Institute and shall be responsible for proper administration of the Institute and for imparting of instruction and maintenance of discipline therein.

(3) The Director shall submit annual reports and accounts to the Board.

(4) The Director shall exercise such powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by this Ordinance, the Statutes or Ordinances or by resolution of the Board.

18. Registrar.— (1) The appointment of the Registrar of the Institute shall be on such terms and conditions as laid down by the Statutes.

(2) The Registrar shall be the custodian of records, the common seal, the funds of the Institute and the property of the Institute, as the Board shall commit to his charge.

(3) The Registrar shall act as the Secretary of the Board and such committees, as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(4) The Registrar shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by this Ordinance or the Statutes or the Board or the Director and in exercising such powers and in performing such duties, he shall be responsible to the Director for the proper discharge of his functions.

19. Others authorities and officers.— The powers and duties of officers other than those mentioned in this Chapter shall be determined by the Statutes.

20. Grants by Central Government.— For the purpose of enabling the Institute to discharge its functions efficiently under this Ordinance, the Central Government may after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to the Institute in each financial year such sums of money and in such manner as it may think fit.

21. Funds of Institute.— (1) The Institute shall maintain a fund to which the following shall be credited, namely:—

(a) all moneys provided by the Central Government or any State Government;

(b) all fees and other charges received by the Institute;

(c) all moneys received by the Institute by way of grants, gifts, donations, benefactions, bequests or transfers; and

(d) all moneys received by the Institute in any other manner or from any other source.

(2) All moneys credited to the Fund of the Institute shall be deposited in such banks or invested in such manner as the Institute may, with the approval of the Central Government, decide.

(3) The Fund of the Institute shall be applied towards meeting the expenses of the Institute, including expenses incurred in the exercise of its powers and discharge of its duties under this Ordinance.

22. Accounts and audit.— (1) The Institute shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts, including the balance sheet, in such form as may be specified, by notification, by the Central Government in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(2) The accounts of the Institute shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such audit shall be payable by the Institute to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of the accounts of the Institute shall have the same rights, privileges and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India has in connection with the audit of the Government accounts, and, in particular, shall have the rights to demand the production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect the offices of the Institute.

(4) The accounts of the Institute as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded annually to the Central Government and that Government shall cause the same to be laid before each House of Parliament in accordance with such procedure as may be laid down by the Central Government.

23. Pension and provident fund.— (1) The Institute shall constitute for the benefit of its employees, including the Director in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes, such pension and provident funds and provide such insurance scheme as it may deem fit.

(2) Where any such provident fund has been so constituted, the Central Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 shall apply to such fund as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

24. Appointments.— All appointments of the staff of the Institute, except that of the Director, shall be made in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Statutes, by—

(a) the Board, if the appointment is made on the—

(i) academic staff in the post of Associate Professor or above; or

(ii) non-academic staff in any cadre up to a scale of pay as decided by the Board; and

(b) the Director, in other cases.

25. Statutes.— Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Statutes may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the conferment of honorary degrees;

(b) the formation of departments or divisions of teaching;

(c) the fees to be charged for courses of study in the Institute and for admission to the examinations of degrees and diplomas of the Institute;

(d) the institution of fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;

(e) the term of office and the method of appointment of officers of the Institute;

(f) the qualifications of teachers of the Institute;

(g) the classifications, the method of appointment and the determination of the terms and conditions of service of teachers and other staff of the Institute;

(h) the constitution of pension and provident funds and insurance scheme for the benefit of the officers, teachers and other staff of the Institute;

(i) the constitution, powers and duties of the authorities of the Institute;

(j) the establishment and maintenance of halls and hostels;

(k) the conditions of residence of students of the Institute and the levying of fees for residence in the halls and hostels and of other charges;

(l) the allowances to be paid to the Chairperson and members of the Board;

(m) the authentication of the orders and decisions of the Board;

(n) the meetings of the Board, the Senate, or any Committee, the quorum at such meetings and the procedure to be followed in the conduct of their business;

(o) any other matter which by this Ordinance is to be or may be prescribed by the Statutes.

26. Statutes, how made.— (1) The first Statutes of the Institute shall be framed by the Central Government with the previous approval of the Visitor and a copy of the same shall be laid as soon as may be before each House of Parliament.

(2) The Board may, from time to time, make new or additional Statutes or may amend or repeal the Statutes in the manner provided in this section.

(3) Every new Statute or addition to the Statutes or any amendment or repeal of Statute shall require the previous approval of the Visitor who may assent thereto or withhold assent or remit it to the Board for consideration.

(4) A new Statute or a Statute amending or repealing an existing Statute shall have no validity unless it has been assented to by the Visitor.

27. Ordinances.— Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and the Statutes, the Ordinances of the Institute may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the admission of the students to the Institute;

(b) the courses of study to be laid down for all degrees and diplomas of the Institute;

(c) the conditions under which students shall be admitted to the degree or diploma courses and to the examinations of the Institute, and shall be eligible for degrees and diplomas;

(d) the conditions of award of the fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;

(e) the conditions and mode of appointment and duties of examining bodies, examiners and moderators;

(f) the conduct of examinations;

(g) the maintenance of discipline among the students of the Institute; and

(h) any other matter which by this Ordinance or the Statutes is to be or may be provided for by the Ordinances.

28. Ordinances how made.— (1) Save as otherwise provided in this section, Ordinances shall be made by the Senate.

(2) All Ordinances made by the Senate shall have effect from such date as it may direct, but every Ordinance so made shall be submitted, as soon as may be, to the Board and shall be considered by the Board at its next succeeding meeting.

(3) The Board shall have power by resolution to modify or cancel any such Ordinance and such Ordinance shall from the date of such resolution stand modified accordingly or cancelled, as the case may be.

29. Tribunal of Arbitration.— (1) Any dispute arising out of a contract between the Institute and any of its employees shall, at the request of the employee concerned or at the instance of the Institute, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Institute, one member nominated by the employee, and an umpire appointed by the Visitor.

(2) The decision of the Tribunal shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

(3) No suit or proceeding shall lie in any court in respect of any matter, which is required by sub-section (1) to be referred to the Tribunal of Arbitration.

(4) The Tribunal of Arbitration shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

(5) Nothing in any law for the time being in force relating to arbitration shall apply to arbitrations under this section.

CHAPTER III

Miscellaneous

30. Control by Central Government.— The Institute shall carry out such directions as may be issued to it from time to time by the Central Government for the efficient administration of this Ordinance.

31. Acts and proceedings not to be invalidated by vacancies, etc.— No act of the Institute or Board or Senate or any other body set up under this Ordinance or the Statutes shall be invalid merely by reason of—

(a) any vacancy in or defect in the constitution thereof; or

(b) any defect in the selection, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or

(c) any irregularity in its procedure not affecting the merits of the case.

32. Power to remove difficulties.— (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before each of House of Parliament.

33. Transitional provisions.— Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance,—

(a) the Board of Governors of the institute functioning as such immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance shall continue to so function until a new Board is constituted for the Institute under this Ordinance, but on the constitution of a new Board under this Ordinance, the members of the Board holding office before such constitution shall cease to hold office;

(b) the Senate constituted in relation to the Institute before the commencement of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be the Senate constituted under this Ordinance until a Senate is constituted under this Ordinance for the Institute, but on the constitution of the new Senate under this Ordinance, the members of the Senate holding office before such constitution shall cease to hold office.

PRATIBHA DEVISINGH PATIL,
President.

V. K. BHASIN,
